4. Superintendent's Evaluation

Part I

Board members met to discuss the evaluation of Dr. Mark Mullins, superintendent. Each member was individually provided an evaluation tool to complete prior to the workshop. Members had been sent the compilation in advance. During the workshop, Board members reviewed each standard and came to consensus on an overall ranking for each and provided comments.

Part II

Performance based goals were established last year (during the 2019-20 evaluation cycle) which included an incentive award pursuant to section 6.1..2 of the Superintendent's Employment Agreement. Board members reviewed to see which, if any, of those goals had been met.

Part III

This section was to identify Dr. Mullins' achievements and areas for growth. Board members discussed and came to consensus areas to include.

Part IV

This was the Board's opportunity to establish performance goals for Dr. Mullins during 20-21.

Closing Remarks

5. Closing Remarks/Direction

The evaluation tool will be updated by the administrative assistant to be presented in its entirety to Dr. Mullins on August 14, 2020.
