25. Consideration - Re-implementation of Policy 8420.02

Ms. Jenkins had asked to have this item added to the August 10, 2021 agenda. She made a motion to re-implement Policy 8420.02 which was seconded by Ms. McDougall. She then made a motion to amend the motion to include a strictly outlined opt-out clause. Ms. McDougall seconded the amendment.

Empassioned discussion ensued. Ms. Jenkins and Ms. McDougall were empahitic that students and staff need the protection that masks offer and were not willing to do nothing. Mr. Susin, Ms. Campbell and Ms. Belford felt the opt out not only would be unsuccessful, but place an enormous burden on staff to track. Ms. Belford explained the consequences the District could face if they defied the Governor's executive order.

The amendment was voted on and failed three to two:

-Nay votes: Belford, Campbell and Susin

-Aye votes: Jenkins and McDougall
