0169.1 Public Participation at Board Meetings - Updated Agenda Package.pdf

Chairman Belford asked if there was anyone who wished to address the policy.

Speakers in order of appearance:

1. Katie Delaney - Don't limit comments to 1 minute
2. Michelle Barrineau - 1 minute is sufficient; feels she can reach the Board by other means
3. Julie Bywater - Why is it hard to listen to parents for 3 minutes? They deserve to be on video and not act like they don't exist.
4. Sara Mirsky - Every parent that takes the time to be at the Board meeting should have 3 minutes
5. Karen Colby - Does not want to limit to 1 minute
6. Jeremy Bower - Which is more of a domestic terrorist; the one speaking for 3 minutes or the one limiting to 1 minute?
7. Sandra Sullivan - Do not reduce the time to one minute
8. Michelle Beavers - Limiting video coverage will limit what parents not in the audience will be able to see
9. Kerry Jenkins - Public comments are the only way to get the point across
10. Matthew Dawley - 3 minutes
11. Sara ? - Need more time for public comments and wants it broadcast
12. Fenn Marshall - Emailed and no response from Board

Ms. Campbell wanted to revisit and revise to leave the cameras on. Ms. Jenkins agreed that there was no point in turning cameras off. Following the vote which passed three to two, Board consensus was to immediately revise the policy to leave the cameras on during the portion of the meeting where persons address the non-agenda items. The Board hopes to have the rulemaking process done and ready for a vote at the December, 2021 meeting.
