E. Public Discussion

13. Public Comments - Agenda Items

As there were only six speakers signed up to speak to agenda items; each speaker was given three minutes. Chair Belford reminded speakers of the decorum expected while speaking. There was some confusion whether or not speakers were addressing agenda items. If speakers were not speaking on agenda items, they were moved to the public comment portion of the meeting on non-agenda items.

Katie Delaney - F-21 Teacher Shortage (Ms. Delaney addressed teacher shortages and student discipline. F-21 was regarding Critical Teacher Shortage Subject Areas 21-22).

Karen Colby - A-5 Chairman Selection - (She added that she wanted to speak about sports equity

Diana Haines - H-61 Public Participation (Chair Belford asked her for clarification whether or not it was on policy 0169.01).

Sophia Patterson - (Ms. Patterson signed up to speak on Oath of Office. There was not an agenda item for Oath of Office on this agenda. Ms. Patterson referenced 1001.42 which was not an agenda item, but authority for action on some agenda items. She was told she could have time to speak with non-agenda items.)

Sara Mirsky - Ms. Mirsky only listed F on Construction. She addressed several items and indicated her approval for the repair issues at Endeavour. She began to speak about inappropriate books in the school. At that time Chair Belford said she could address that non-agenda item during the non-agenda public comments. Ms. Mirsky then spoke briefly about public participation.

Julia Anton - H-56 Policy 2520 Curriculum Adoption (When she veered off topic - Chair Belford reminded her to address curriculum adoption)

Speakers in order of appearance:

Katie Delaney - Equity

Karen Colby - Sports Equity

Diana Haines - Cameras in classrooms, cell phone usage at dais and cost of lawsuits

Sophia Patterson - She read a portion of policy 1001.42 and said that limiting public comments was unconstitutional.

Wyatt Stumbo - He had questions about the portion of the agenda that says: Items pulled for Discussion. For clarification - that portion of the agenda is to be used in the event Board members wish to discuss a specific item under the Consent Agenda allowing them to vote on those items not pulled for discussion and ultimately voting on the item(s) pulled for discussion individually. There were no items pulled for discussion. He spoke to some items on G-47(a) and indicated that the district neglected to select some liability insurance which he feels is necessary. He had concerns with the costing of goods.

Sara Mirsky- Inappropriate books in school libraries.

Chair Belford reminded the public that the Board is available to discuss items with them via phone, email or in person.
