

CONGRATULATIONS! Congratulations to all JROTC unit teams and individual cadets that qualified for the 2022 JROTC Service Regional Championships. This competition will give JROTC units and individuals who earned the right to represent their schools an opportunity to meet the challenges of a major shoulder-to-shoulder competition. The JROTC Service Championship is also the qualifying competition for the 2022 National JROTC Championship. Individual and team JROTC Championship awards will be presented, and the top unit teams and at-large individuals will qualify for the National JROTC Championship at the Gary Anderson CMP Competition Center at Camp Perry, Ohio on 17 - 19 March 2022. This official program governs the conduct of the championship and provides information so JROTC units that qualified teams or individuals can plan their participation.

COMPETITION HOST. The Civilian Marksmanship Program will host this event. The Director of the Civilian Marksmanship Program (DCM) is Mark Johnson.

If you have questions regarding the JROTC Air Rifle Championships, contact CMP Competitions, 419-635-2141 or JROTC@thecmp.org.

HEALTH AND SAFETY. Please be prepared to wear a mask at all times while on CMP property. The CMP may or may not require a mask to be worn by each individual during the conduct of the event. Please bring your mask with you and if instructed to wear your mask by CMP management, it must cover your nose and mouth at all times. The final decision concerning mask wearing on CMP property will be made the first morning of the event by CMP management.

QUALIFYING TEAMS AND INDIVIDUAL CADETS. Qualifications were based on geographic proximity to the regional host site. Please refer to the postal program for complete selection information. To see a current list of team/individual invitations, go to: <http://thecmp.org/air/jrotc-air-rifle-national-championship/>

TEAM AND INDIVIDUAL ENTRY CONFIRMATION. Because of the short time between when the JROTC postal scores became and the start of the Service Championship, it is critically important that every JROTC unit receiving an invitation to participate inform CMP as soon as possible as to your intention to participate. Instructors of qualifying unit teams or individuals are requested to complete online registration no later than 19Jan22. This can be found by following the link for JROTC Service Championship Registration found at: <http://thecmp.org/air/jrotc-air-rifle-national-championship/>. Please let CMP know if your team or individual will not participate so we can invite the next team or individual. Failure to respond by 19Jan22 will be taken as a forfeit of invitation.

MATCH FEES. There is a $20 entry fee for each cadet participating in the match. Match fees will include a ticket for the shooter's reception, a t-shirt and commemorative coin for all coaches and cadets. Coaches may pay this at the time of registration online, or mail a copy of the registration confirmation with a check to:

JROTC SERVICE CHAMPIONSHIP.

- Rules. The competitions will be governed by the 2020-2022 13th Edition National Standard Three-Position Air Rifle Rules. Copies of the rules may be purchased from the Civilian Marksmanship Program or rulebooks may be downloaded from the CMP web site at <http://thecmp.org/air/national-standard-three-position-air-rifle-rules/> .
- Competition Sanction. The National Three-Position Air Rifle Council has sanctioned the 2022 JROTC Service Championships. Scores fired can be recognized as national records.
- JROTC Service Team Championships, Sporter and Precision Classes. Each qualifying team may bring up to five cadets to the competition. If a unit team brings five cadets, they must designate the four team members and one alternate at the time of check-in. Subsequent substitutions are possible only in the case of illness or an emergency. Members of qualifying unit four-person teams will fire two 3x20 courses of fire.
- JROTC Individual Championships, Sporter and Precision Classes. The four members of each unit team, plus all at-large individual qualifiers, and all alternates will compete for individual awards. On day two of the match, the top eight individuals in the precision and sporter classes will compete in a 10-shot final. Final individual rankings for these cadets will be based on the total of their two 3X20 scores plus the final scores fired by the top eight individuals.
- EIC Credit Points. The National Three-Position Air Rifle Council recognizes the JROTC Service Championships as a National Council Member Championship. The top 25% of all Non-Distinguished competitors in the overall individual rankings will receive EIC credit points (counts towards Junior Distinguished status) in accordance with National Council regulations (Appendix D in the National Standard Rules). EIC Points will be calculated after the competition has concluded on the 16th and will be made available the following week. Cadet's that have recently earned their distinguished badges may bring their badges with them to be presented. Please turn the badge in at check-in.

Qualifying for JROTC National Championship. The 2021-2022 JROTC Air Rifle Marksmanship Program will culminate with the National JROTC Air Rifle Championship on 17 - 19 March 2022. The following unit teams and at-large individuals will represent their respective JROTC services at the JROTC National Championship scheduled to take place at the Gary Anderson CMP Competition Center at Camp Perry, Ohio.
