

ADMINISTRATIVE TECHNICIAN

SUMMARY/SCOPE/GOAL

Under general supervision, the Administrative Technician performs a variety of technical administrative and paraprofessional duties in support of division level procurement, scheduling, budget, and administrative functions or in support of projects or programs; assists administrative and analytical personnel in researching, compiling, and reviewing information; develops and maintains databases and spreadsheets.

The Administrative Technician is distinguished from journey level clerical classifications in that the duties of the Administrative Technician are technical and paraprofessional in nature and require greater knowledge and judgment. Administrative Technicians may support department administrative functions, but the majority of the work is not clerical in nature.
