DISCUSSION:

Secondary Science instructional materials were last adopted in 2018, with the subscription for student materials ending in the 2022-2023 school year. There was no adoption for Science instructional materials in the 2023-2024 school year. The next adoption cycle for Brevard is to be in 2025 with newly adopted materials being implemented in classrooms in the 2025-2026 school year. This year(s) between agreements is referred to as a “gap year”. In this period, the district must pay for the extension of the subscription services and consumable materials. These materials are published by McGraw Hill, Savvas Learning Company, LLC, and Discovery Education and are available for purchase from the Florida School Book Depository. The estimated price for student materials is $611,615.31.

The standard bid waiver agenda template has been used, which does not require legal review.

CONTRACT TERM:

The initial contract term shall commence on June 14, 2023 and continue until June 30, 2024.
